

SEEDS Survey Data Terms of Use

The following terms of use apply to the data and other material provided by the National Renewable Energy Laboratory (NREL) from the NREL-led “Understanding the Evolution of Customer Motivations and Adoption Barriers in Residential Photovoltaic Markets” SEEDS project. This project was funded by the U.S. Department of Energy – Solar Energy Technology Office under subtask SM13SA01.

1. Data and other material will not be redistributed or sold to other individuals, institutions or organizations without including this disclaimer or with NREL’s written approval.
2. Data will be used for statistical and scientific research purposes only. They will be employed solely for reporting aggregated information, including modelling, and not for investigating specific individuals or organizations.
3. No attempt will be made to re-identify respondents from these data, and there will be no use of the identity of any person or establishment discovered inadvertently. Any such discovery will be reported immediately to the NREL Legal department.
4. No attempt will be made to produce links between these data and other datasets that could identify individuals or organizations.
5. Any books, articles, conference papers, theses, dissertations, reports or other publications employing data or other materials provided will cite the source, in line with the citation requirement provided with the data.
6. An electronic copy of all publications based on the provided data will be sent to Benjamin.Sigrin@NREL.gov.
7. The original collector(s) of the data, NREL, and the DOE (funding agency) bear no responsibility for the data’s use or interpretation or inferences based upon it.

These terms of use are in addition to any other terms of use or disclaimer text provided with the data or other materials.
